

Institute for Leadership

Sept. 15-16
2017

A service of Rotary District 5130
Uniquely Rotarian . . . A unique 2-day event

Participants . . .

- Explore skills as a coaches, team members, and agents of change
- Enhance leadership and communication skills
- Discuss leadership and service in depth, especially in the context of Rotary values and ethics
- Awaken greater passion for leading

- FACEBOOK: Rotary District 5130 - Institute for Leadership
- Contact Program Chair PDG Ken Moulton; kmoult@comcast.net; 707.328.9680

Register Now!

Friday, September 15: 8:30-5:00

Saturday, September 16: 8:30-4:00

A full 2-day program

SANTA ROSA JUNIOR COLLEGE
Rotary Student Leadership Center
at Bertolini Hall
$130*

Continental breakfasts & full lunches included
Optional reception Friday evening, no charge; guests invited

Registration due date: July 15, 2017

Request registration form from Ken Moulton (info above this box)
Maximum of 22 participants

*We suggest that clubs contribute $100, participants $30

Since 2008, our district's IFL has graduated 180+ participants

In the words of just a few:

"I have attended a lot of classes on leadership; this was one of the best."
Renee Hyde,
Insurance Broker; Windsor

"Great moderators-enthusiasm was contagious."
Valerie Hulsey
Software Executive; Valley of the Moon

"Will add value to my personal and professional life."

Linda Sinkay
Insurance Broker; Sebastopol SR

"Excellent choice; helps you identify your strengths. You could spend y thousands of dollars on similar programs".

Wayne Sutton, DDS
Rohnert Park-Cotati

"Excellent! The trainers were outstanding, the exercises were great and the whole class was practical and relevant on many levels. I highly recommend the IFL for any Rotarian who wants to develop their leadership skills. You won't be disappointed!

Chris Ranney,
Coach/Organizational Consultant
Petaluma

"The IFL made an incredible impression on me."

Glenda Sales
Realtor®, Industrial Park Mgr; Windsor

