

“Where Dreams Take Flight”

McClellan Conference Center
& Lions Gate Hotel, Sacramento, CA
May 18-20, 2018

Why should you attend?...

To participate in a unique Rotary forum for your ideas ...for improving your communities, your clubs and beyond. Your shared perspective and experiences will “make the difference”

Speakers – Jim Marggraff, Creator of Google’s Eyefluence (control your computer at the “speed of sight” with your eyes) and the Smart Pen (a pen/recorder that takes your shorthand notes and converts them into a full text pdf document), plus other exciting and innovative speakers.

Roundtables – Addressing issues from homelessness to Rotary Club growth & vitality.

Pre-Conference Activities - Friday morning Golf Tournament, Bocce Ball Tournament, & biking with the Pedal 4 Polio Team along the scenic American River Parkway, plus a cocktail reception at the Aerospace Museum California, complete with flight simulators for you to test your piloting skills...no experience necessary!

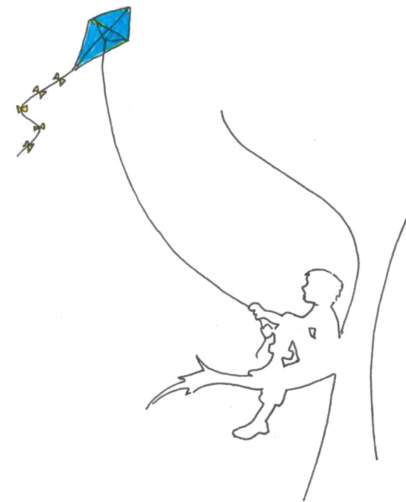

Hands-on Activities - Food packaging to end hunger, assembling prosthetic hands for amputees, and a fun, Rotary Youth Exchange administered “Paper Airplane Contest” for all.

Entertainment – Friday night listen to the sounds of the Ben Flint Jazz combo; Saturday night’s entertainment features Transcendence Theatre Company - the popular and critically acclaimed music and dance ensemble, bringing Broadway to the West coast...based in Jack London State Park near Glen Ellen in Sonoma County.

Registration is now open - It is a two step process.

First, book your room at the Crowne Plaza Hotel. Go to <https://tinyurl.com/BookCrownePlaza> (Group Code SEB) or call 877-504-0054 and ask for the “Rotary Block”. Note: Golf & Bocce Ball Tournaments plus the bike ride begin at 10:00AM Friday, so if you plan on participating in any of these, consider booking a room for a Thursday night stay as well.

Second, to register for the Conference, select meal choices and sign up for the extracurricular activities, look for the registration link sent to you by me a few days ago in your email. If you need another, contact District Administrator Valerie Hulseley at valerie.hulseley@yahoo.com
